Dear Mr. Massini,

Rick

Thank you for providing me with a copy of your November 21, 2016 letter.

I appreciate the time taken to voice your opinions on this matter and provide your recommendations regarding homeschooling in our province. Your advocacy on behalf of Alberta students, in order to ensure that they are receiving appropriate and adequate education is to be commended.

It is my understanding that the Honourable David Eggen, Minister of Education, will be providing you with a response.

Sincerely,

R. E. Wanner

Dear Arlene:

Thank you for your thoughtful letter of November 17, 2016. I was pleased to hear that the 2016 Annual MLA Reception event, hosted by the Public School Boards' Association of Alberta, on October 19, 2016, was a success. I regret that I was unable to attend.

I would also like to thank you for your kind invitation to attend the 2017 Annual Reception on November 16, 2017. I will ensure that it is marked down in my calendar, and that my attendance is confirmed at a later date closer to the reception.

Please accept my best wishes for success as you continue to advocate for Public School Education and the children in your collective care.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Massini:

Thank you for your November 21, 2016 letter of support for my ministry's efforts to ensure quality learning opportunities for all Alberta students.

In our province, we have worked hard to create a high-quality education system in collaboration with school boards. As a ministry, we rely on your local efforts to support student learning and to provide feedback on where we can improve learning for Albertans.

I appreciate you taking the time to write and share your recommendations for changes to the Home Education Regulation. I will keep your comments in mind during future discussions with my colleagues.

Sincerely,

David Eggen
Minister
