JANUARY BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

PRESENTATION

Alternative Programming Team Presentation

The Alternative Programming Team provides supports to meet the individual needs of students and educational staff. The team provides frontline support to students who require Tier 3/4 behaviour, complex communication and specialized programming supports. The work of the team continues to evolve to meet the unique needs of students, staff, and families within our Division.

The team provided an overview of the structure, layers of services and professional learning provided to staff across the system and how the support is being implemented within an inclusive setting.
